There are some Southern men in Congress, however, who still take a serious view of things, and who still expect the return of Chaos: and Old Night, if this agitation be not stopped. Among them is ex-Governor Suith, of Vs., who, on being informed the other day in conversation with a Massachusetts member of the American party, that they had succeeded there became the people believed them to be more truly satisfavery than the Republicans themselves, smalfested a most painful surprise. "Good God!" he exclaimed, is it possible! Then the Union is dissolved!

The general impression is, that after the extreme pretensions lately put forth by Southern members have once been set at rest by moderate but decisive legislation, they will be surprised to find how little they had been hurt. In the quiet enjoyment of their proper local privileges, they will wonder at their former uncless ambition to impose them on people outside of their ownboundaries. After a few more attempts at slavery propagandizing, it is hoped, they will subside hijo where, but not sattler men. STUDIG, SACO LINE WHI Try DERECTORS ARE
